School last week

Lecture

Helen Sharp gave an inspirational lecture about the 'Build Africa' project and the school is going to raise £6,500, which would build a classroom in either Kenya or Uganda. The children have been discussing ways to generate the money and we will inform you of any projects in relation to this charity.

School this week

Monday Music

Oliver Vince played 'Top Cat' on the piano in Assembly this morning.

Captains

Three captains have been appointed this week. Congratulations to: Hattie Milligan-Manby (hockey), Oliver Bond (golf) and Alistair Smallwood (squash).

Friends of Wellesley

There will be a Friends of Wellesley committee meeting in school on Wednesday. There is an area on the website specifically for the Friends, and any new information will be updated here after such meetings.

Address Book

The Friends of Wellesley are also compiling an address book of parents. If you would like to be added to this list in order to receive the latest information, please contact Caroline Hume-Kendall before the end of exeat, using the following email address: hume.kendall@btinternet.com

Exeat

Exeat begins on Friday and parents can collect their children from school at 1.30 pm. If your child is travelling by coach then please refer to the calendar for arrival times. Exeat ends on Sunday for boarders, and day children can return 8.15 am on Monday morning. We hope you have an enjoyable weekend and that your children tell you all about their first few weeks of school.

Apologies

There were additions to the calendar listed here (Monday morning), but they were incorrect and have been removed. Please accept our apologies for this.

Best Prep School Headmaster

Parents may be interested to know that for the second year running the Headmaster was nominated in the Best Prep School Headmaster category at the recent Tatler Schools Awards held at Claridge's last week. Third time lucky?
