School last week

Half-Term

We hope you enjoyed the break over half-term and it is good to see the school back to full strength.

School this week

Monday Music

Nico Latteur played the viola very well in assembly this morning. It was a grade 5 piece by an unknown composer.

Six of the Best

The second piece of artwork chosen to hang in the Headmaster's study is a colourful sunflower painting by Oliver Morris. Well done.

Fireworks Party

We hope to see many parents and old Welleslians at the fireworks party on Saturday. It is always lovely when old pupils return to let the staff know how well they have settled into their senior schools. The fireworks start at 6:45 pm and parents can arrive earlier for drinks on the patio area by the pool. There will be food available later in the evening and refreshments.

Hockey v Mothers

This is always an entertaining and competitive match. In the past the 1st XI have managed to show their skills and triumph, but the Mothers have been getting better over the years and are keen to claim a few more victories. Good luck to both teams.

Remembrance Sunday

The Chapel service on Sunday is at 10.20 am and we will be joined by Lieutenant Colonel J Wheeler. We hope you can join us at this service of remembrance. There will be drinks available after the service for adults.

Dress Rehearsal

The first dress rehearsal for the senior school play takes place on Sunday afternoon involving the whole cast. We hope that Mr Hallam is pleased with the progress the cast are making. There are already glimpses of scenery in the Old Hall and we look forward to the full production in a few weeks time.
