School last week

Team Photos

It was a wet and cold break time, but the decision was made to go ahead with the team photos. The children stayed dry and warm until their team was called forward, and despite the weather the children smiled for the camera. The photos will be ready for purchasing in due course and details will be given then.

Lecture

Mr Amos Courage gave a very interesting and informative lecture on Friday. He explained his role into the Aspinall Foundation, in association with Howletts and Port Lympne Animal Parks, a program with a vision to prepare gorillas for release in their natural habitats. He displayed photos of his experience and described his childhood, which was surrounded by animals. The school often enjoys outings to Howletts and Port Lympne Animal Parks and we look forward to our next visit there to see the gorillas and other animals.

Senior School Play

The cast of the play have been working very hard over the weekend in both technical and dress rehearsals. It is great to see the effort involved in such a production and the different elements that work together to achieve the complete picture. We very much look forward to the production, details are below.

School this week

Monday Music

Claudia Kwong played an unaccompanied piece on her cello this morning. The music was by Bach and is a piece that Claudia is playing in preparation for her Grade 6.

Half a Sixpence

The senior school play productions are at the following times:

Thursday 19th November 6.30 pm
Friday 20th November 6.30 pm
Saturday 21st November 2.30 pm

The Next Step

Mr O'Malley will be giving a talk on Saturday morning in the library at 11.30 am for parents of children in Block 4. The talk will provide information and advice about choosing the next school for your child. Many of you may have already had children pass through Wellesley, however it is good to keep up to date with changes in procedures and the latest information about senior schools.

Exeat

Exeat begins on Saturday morning. Those children who are not involved in the play or watching may leave after lunch. Exeat ends on Monday evening and school begins on Tuesday morning.
